ROTARY CLUB HAS SECOND BIRTHDAY

Balcynor Members Hear of Joy of Living and Czechoslovakia.

WIVES RECEIVE GIFTS

The second anniversary of the presentation of its charter was celebrated by the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club at a meeting Tuesday night, when 64 members and guests and their wives enjoyed a combined "Ladies' Night" and birthday party program.

Russell Green, Narberth, welcomed the women guests in behalf of the club, which was organized two years ago with Alvin E. Shull as the first president. Other original officers were John A. Miller, vice president; Robert J. Boyd, secretary; William H. Decker, treasurer, and Joseph J. Skelton, Jr., sergeant-at-arms.

Samuel C. Schmucker, district governor of Rotary International, gave the dinner one of his talks on "The Joy of Living," in his usual vein. The other speaker on the program was Miss S. V. Seam, a former Y. W. C. A. worker, who described the customs and dress of Czechoslovakia, wearing costumes of the country.

Several door prizes were given women present, and in addition each woman was presented with a compact and a sprig of sweet peas. Mrs. E. S. Deubler was given a traveling bag and Dr. Deubler, president of the club, received a Rotary pin.

Other door prizes went to the following: Mrs. J. A. Miller, Mrs. E. A. Henry, Mrs. A. C. Miller, Mrs. W. Russell Green, Mrs. Walter G. Case, Miss Peggy Walzer, Mrs. Hervey C. Keim, Mrs. Samuel C. Schmucker, James Paul Carroll, Mrs. Alvin E. Shull and Miss Louise Evarts.

A talk by a prohibition enforcement agent from the Pennsylvania State Unit is scheduled for the next meeting of the club, to be held Tuesday noon in the Cynwyd Club as usual. The speaker will be secured by L. Stanley King.

GIFTS NEAR GOAL FOR NEW SHELVING

Library Contributions Only $167
Short of Needed Amount.

One hundred and sixty-seven dollars is still needed to complete the fund of $500, which the Community Library is trying to raise to buy much-needed additional shelving and other required furnishings.

If the library is to keep pace with the increasing demands that are made upon it every week this new shelving, etc., must be had at the earliest possible date.

During the week just passed citizens of Narberth contributed $57 to the fund which, added to the amount acknowledged in last week's issue of OUR TOWN, brings the total received to date up to $333.

One of the most gratifying features of this campaign has been the interesting and encouraging expressions that have come to the Library Association along with the contributions.

One contributor wrote: "The Community Library, it seems to me, is one of the most philanthropic projects in Narberth, aiming to give the greatest good to the greatest number with absolutely no return in any way to the promoters. The community should be proud of such an institution. The library is deserving of the help of every one who has the best interests of the town at heart, whether inclined to use it or not. Personally, I have enjoyed the library very much. The choice reading and the genial, friendly helpfulness of the library staff have been a great pleasure to me."

Wrote another: "Deep, indeed, is my pleasure in being privileged to contribute toward the shelving. Were I to measure the service or advantages I have had in the use of the library, I should feel obligated to send the full amount required. Doubtless there are many others who feel the same sense of appreciation, and I would not

GIVE ROUTE FOR BOY WEEK PARADE

Will Award Prizes for Best Decorated Floats
and Cars.

LIST ATHLETIC EVENTS

Detailed plans for the auto parade that will inaugurate the first day of Boy Week, and of the athletic contests that will be features of the Main Line observance of the national week, April 28 to May 5, were made at a special meeting of the Main Line Boy Council, held in the Ardmore Y. M. C. A. building Tuesday night.

The parade will start at the same time as the relay race, 10 A. M. Saturday, April 28. But whereas in the relay boys will carry a message from Bryn Mawr to Philadelphia, the parade will confine its course to Lower Merion, making its way through Lower Merion from Rosemont to City Line.

The line will form entering Roberts road, Rosemont, from Montgomery pike. It will go east on Lancaster pike to Church road, Ardmore, then left to Montgomery pike, and along the pike to Essex avenue, Narberth; then right on Essex avenue to Haverford avenue, left along Haverford avenue to Montgomery pike again, along the pike through Cynwyd to Bryn Mawr avenue, then right, along Bryn Mawr avenue to City Line, where it will end.

Prizes will be given for the most artistic car, the most original one, the most artistic Boy Scout car and the most original Boy Scout car. The first prize will be $10 and the second, $5. For the first and second best float entered and decorated by boys, prizes of $10 and $5 respectively will be awarded; and in addition honorable mention will go to the three best floats entered in the parade by adults and merchants.

PLEADS GUILTY

Henry Peyton Gilbert, 40, of 1 Franklin Terrace, New York City, who was arrested by Lower Merion police, March 21, for robbing the poor box at St. Margaret's Church, Narberth, pleaded guilty Wednesday when tried before Judge Williams in criminal court at Norristown. He will be sentenced the latter part of this week. Gilbert was caught red-handed when a burglar alarm on the poor box sounded an alarm and warned the parish priest, Rev. Robert F. Hayes.

HIT CAR—THEN BUS

James O'Connor, of East Montgomery avenue, Ardmore, was arrested Saturday, 5:30 P. M., by Officer Johnson, and charged with drunken driving, following an accident at Montgomery Pike and Hansell road. O'Connor, it was testified, struck a private car first, then caromed off that into a Montgomery Pike bus, and skidded along the side of this until he hung his machine on the front bumper of the bus.

Given a hearing before Magistrate Kromer, he was held in $500 bail on the charge of operating a vehicle while intoxicated.

HART ADDRESSES COMMUNITY CLUB

Chaplain of U. of P. Talks On Religious Education of Today

EXPLAIN MELODY WAY

On Tuesday, April 3, the regular meeting of the Women's Community Club of Narberth was held in the Narberth Theater Hall. The first speaker, Dr. John R. Hart, Jr., chaplain of the University of Pennsylvania, bubbling over with mirthful stories, put his audience at ease before he began his really serious and very constructive talk on religious education of today.

"Provost Josiah Penniman," he said, "is opposed to the establishment at the University of Pennsylvania of a school of religion as such, because he feels that religion is studied pretty thoroughly in such departments as the following: Comparative religion, semitic and Greek courses, church history, philosophy courses, psychology of religion and history of religion."

"In the States of Iowa, Michigan and Missouri schools of religion have been founded by such men as Kent, of Yale, and Artman, of Chicago, pioneers in this work. The most novel type is that at the University of Iowa, which took five years to get a real start. One Jewish rabbi, one Roman Catholic priest and one Protestant clergyman were each given a full professorship, and each was expected to conduct classes in which each man was to state things emphatically according to the tenants and beliefs of his own particular creed. This procedure should make a great contribution to the future of religion. Things would be discussed and aired, albeit with some argument and many near battles. As a matter of fact, at the University of Pennsylvania for the past 18 years between 40 and 70 groups of students and faculty have met frequently and regularly just for the purpose of discussing religious questions. The expression of youthful ideas on religious matters was most interesting."

While talking with a young Chinese, well educated and of unusually sound perception, Dr. Hart questioned him as to what was lacking in the Christian religion. The Chinese replied that Christianity actually has all the qualities needed for a perfect religion, but that in America today

HOLD VOTING SYMPOSIUM

Bryn Mawr College Is Scene of Institute of Politics.

The complete program of the Institute of Politics, to be held at Bryn Mawr College on April 10, 11 and 12, was announced by Gertrude Ely, head of the Montgomery County League of Women Voters. Five colleges as well as the league of women voters of four counties are co-operating in this institute. Speakers of repute have been secured for the morning and afternoon sessions. Luncheon will be served at Bryn Mawr College and dinner at the Merion Cricket Club.

The program follows: Morning, 10-11:30, demonstrations of voting machine. "Explanation of 14 proposed amendments to State Constitution. How shall we vote?" by Dr. Clyde King; 11:30-1, "Or international attitude," by Philip Jessup, professor of international law, Columbia University, formerly of State Department; luncheon, Pembroke Hall.

Afternoon — 2:30-3:30, "Candidates and issues," by Frank R. Kent, Baltimore; 3:30-5, "Pay and public office-holding—do they appeal?" by Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt, New York; Major Jia Stimson, superintendent of the Centralization of Government, a menace?" by Hon. Huston Thompson, former chairman Federal Tax Commission.

The fee for the day is $1. Luncheon is $1 and dinner $2. Checks may be drawn to Montgomery County League of Women Voters and sent to Mrs. Harold Wilbur, Rosemont, Pa.

Valuable Ship's Chronometer Serves Residents of NARBERTH

The story of two chronometers, manufactured by the same German company, and at the same time, which traveled the seven seas and finally rested side by side in a Philadelphia shop, is told in an interesting note from Samuel P. Bowman.

Mr. Bowman, who picked up the valuable instrument in a pawn shop, has kept it on display in the window of Shea's drug store. How it came into his possession is told in his letter.

"After having visited nearly all the pawn shops in Philadelphia," Mr. Bowman says, "in search of such a timepiece, I finally located the one now in question, which is one of the very best makes. Not being familiar with the manufacturer's name, however, I called the firm of John E. Hand & Sons on the telephone, because I knew that most of the sea captains left their chronometers with this firm for regulation, etc., while they were waiting in port, and that I should be able to ascertain whether or not this particular make was of the best."

CITIZENSHIP MEETING TO BE HELD THIS MONTH

Well-Known Speakers at Event in School Auditorium.

Narberth is a mighty fine place, populated with people who take more than the average interest in community affairs and the broader demands of citizenship. Whenever there is a gathering of Narberth people, no matter what the purpose, one always hears the remark: "We ought to get together like this more frequently; we ought to have regular town meetings."

In order to make a practical response to that demand, the legislative committee of the Women's Club, of which Mrs. E. C. Town is chairman, is making arrangements for a citizenship meeting which will be held in the Assembly Hall of the public school at 8 o'clock on the evening of Friday, the 20th. Everyone, men and women, is invited to attend. No admission will be charged, and everyone will be assured an evening that will be both pleasant and profitable.

Pressing problems which are facing the voters in the coming Presidential primaries will be discussed and explained without partisanship or bias. Judge Knight and Mrs. Herman Schwartz will be on the program. In addition, there will be community singing under unusually capable leadership. The detailed program will be announced in next week's issue of "Our Town."

HONOR RETIRING PASTOR

The Rev. W. Sheridan Dawson and Mrs. Dawson were the dinner guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Howard White, of Brookhurst avenue. At 1:45 the members of the Goodfellowship Club walked in on Mr. and Mrs. Dawson and gave them a delightful surprise. John R. Hall, as spokesman, extended the good wishes of the congregation to the retiring minister on his entering another field of labor. In concluding, a handsome traveling bag was presented to Mr. Dawson and a bouquet of sweet peas and roses to Mrs. Dawson.

OPENS SHOP IN TOWN

Mrs. John B. Brooks, of Narberth avenue, has opened a gift shop at 136 South Fifteenth street, Philadelphia, under the name of the Bide-a-Wee Gift Shop, carrying bridge prizes, table gifts, etc. Many bouquets and notes have been received by the proprietress wishing her success in her venture.

PLAN RUMMAGE SALE

The Evangel Circle of King's Daughters will hold a rummage sale April 25 and 26.

Those interested are requested to notify Mrs. J. T. Darlington, Narberth 9952-W.

"To this inquiry I received the very gratifying reply that it was not only of a very high grade, but that the chronometer that was being used on their own counter as the time piece of the store was No. 824, while mine was No. 825. The significance of this may not at once appear; but when it is explained that both chronometers had crossed the ocean many times on different ships and finally rested side by side, in our joint possession (Jack Hand and I are brothers-in-law), this extraordinary part of the story can be justly called a real coincidence."

"Your readers may be interested in knowing that many of the working parts of the chronometer are set in diamond jewels, and that, as soon as the instrument is properly regulated, they will be able to rely upon having a very accurate timepiece."

"We want the instrument to be wound regularly. Anyone finding by the indicator that the chronometer has not been wound for 30 hours or more may earn a soda from Paul Shea by reminding him."

"HONESTLY YOURS" PENN STATE

Local Graduates Interested in Annual Chow.

Seventy-five Penn State boys will dance to the delight of a crowded house at the Penn Athletic Club next Tuesday evening, when they present "Honestly Yours," a three-act musical comedy, as the thirty-first annual production of the Penn State Thespians.

Al White, Jr., of Philadelphia, who is directing all the dances, says that this year's "crop of college boys" have more than readily adapted themselves to all the feminine roles. Following each performance the audience is invited to remain and meet the leading lady, as well as to enjoy the dancing which will be accompanied by the same orchestra which plays during the show.

A number of Penn State alumni throughout the Main Line are interested in the Philadelphia performance. Plans to have a representative audience from here at the Penn A. C. have been made and include the following from Narberth:

Charles E. Kremer, E. E. Ludwick, E. U. Smith, J. E. Freeman, H. A. Smith, R. G. Cungst, R. P. Wetherald, R. D. Kennedy, H. F. Graves, K. E. Strickler, R. Ross Howenstein, J. F. Mullin, J. S. Fyock, J. A. Succop, Lee Freeman, James Kurtz, J. J. Martin, A. B. Stillwagon and J. E. Burrell, Jr.

FINES FOLLOW RAID

Sixteen young men ranging in age from 18 to 34 years were arrested by Lower Merion police Saturday on a raid on a pool room on Narberth avenue, above Haverford, in Narberth. Given a hearing before Squire Walzer, at Ardmore headquarters, they were fined $5 for disorderly conduct and discharged. The raid was made by Lieutenant Miller, Sergeant Vanderver, and Officers Johnson and Flynn following receipt of complaints from neighbors.

FINED FOR VIOLATIONS

Proprietors of six alleged speak-easies in Bryn Mawr and Ardmore who were arrested by Lower Merion police, Saturday, March 17, for violating the prohibition law, pleaded guilty when given trials in Norristown, Wednesday, and were assessed fines varying from $100 to $200. Eighteen barrels of wine were confiscated by the police in raids on the establishments maintained by the six.

D. A. R.'S TO MEET

The Dr. Benjamin Rush Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold its stated meeting on Saturday, April 14, 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. H. M. Chalfant, 128 Chestnut avenue.

POST HOLDS "OPEN HOUSE" ON TUESDAY

Horn & Hardart Radio Orchestra to Play—Dancing and Cards

OTHER LEGION NOTES

On Tuesday, April 10, at 8 o'clock, the Harold D. Speakman Post, of the American Legion, will hold "open house" for its members, their wives and friends, their friends' wives, sweethearts, mothers and all who are in any way interested in the local post. Six hours of fun and frolic will be crowded into three. There will be card playing for those who enjoy the game that made Milton C. Work famous. There will be dancing for those who like to trip the light fantastic toe. The Horn & Hardart Broadcasting Orchestra will be present in person to furnish the music for this occasion. It is hoped that there will be a large crowd turn out to the Legion room in the Community Building.

On last Friday night the local Boy Scout Troop held their regular meeting in the Legion room. Many games were played and an exhibition of the wide field of knowledge acquired by the Scouts was given. Both the Legionnaires present and the members of the troop had an enjoyable time. Over all this country the American Legion posts are taking a greater interest and forming a closer affiliation with the Boy Scout organization. The Narberth post has several times shown its interest in the work; and to the boys, at least, they gave the final proof last Friday night when they served refreshments at the meeting.

On Wednesday, March 28, the Montgomery County Voiture of the Forty and Eight held its meeting in the local Legion Hall. This meeting was fairly well attended by Legionnaires all over the county. Seven members of the local post belong to the Forty and Eight.

Commander R. C. Collins has appointed a committee to take charge of the awarding of medals to the boy and the girl in the eighth grade of the public school and also the parochial school who attain the best averages for courage, character, companionship, service and scholarship during the year. A more detailed announcement of this award will be made a little later.

CHILD BEHAVIOR IS PSYCHOLOGIST'S TOPIC

T. L. Bolton Is Speaker at Next Mothers' Council Meeting.

Dr. Thadeus L. Bolton, head of the department of psychology at Temple University, will be the speaker at the next regular meeting of the Mothers' Council on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Narberth school.

Dr. Bolton is known to all Narberth people, as he is a resident of the borough and has spoken before at Mothers' Council meetings. His subject is "The Hows and Whys of Children's Behavior."

There will also be the second reading and final vote of a proposed amendment to the by-laws, changing the date of meeting from the second to the third Monday of each month.

On April 20 a good citizenship meeting will be held in the Narberth School Auditorium, under the auspices of the Women's Community Club and the Mothers' Council. It is a nonpolitical meeting open to everyone interested in good citizenship. Further notice will be given in the next issue of "Our Town."

A card party is to be given on April 13 from 2 to 4:30 in the Community Building. It is given for the benefit of the Mothers' Council.

Tickets may be secured at 75 cents a person from Mrs. Griswold, at 1 Chestnut avenue, or from Mrs. Joseph Perry, 109 Grayling avenue.

Mrs. Perry will also have them for sale at the regular meeting of Mothers' Council on Monday evening.

COMMUNITY GROUPS PUSH PARK PROJECT

Nineteen Organizations Unite to Convert Mill Creek Valley.

MEETING FOR APRIL 17

Nineteen Lower Merion community organizations have banded together to convert Mill Creek Valley into "The Wissahickon of the Main Line."

The movement, under the leadership of the Community Health and Civic Association of Ardmore, will take definite form in a mass meeting to be held in the Lower Merion Junior High School, April 17.

The organizations co-operating in the plan to preserve the natural beauties of Mill Creek Valley by establishing a public park include, in addition to the Community Health and Civic Association, the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce, Ardmore Women's Club, Bala-Cynwyd Women's Club, Bryn Mawr Business Men's Association, Bryn Mawr War Memorial and Community House Association, Garden Club of Bala-Cynwyd, Haverford Township Commissioners, Keystone Automobile Club, Kiwanis Club of Ardmore, League of Women's Voters, Lower Merion Township Commissioners, Merion Civic Association, Merion Cricket Club, Narberth Women's Community Club, the Neighborhood Club of Bala-Cynwyd, Regional Planning Federation, Rosemont Civic Association and the Rotary Club of Ardmore.

The committee in charge of the mass meeting on April 17 includes Richard J. Hamilton, Samuel Rea, Alfred M. Collins, Robert W. Lesley and Samuel P. Wetherill, Jr.

"We recognize the fact that the Main Line is one of the most beautiful sections to be found anywhere in the United States," said Robert W. Lesley, president of the Community Civic Association, "but it is our view that we can and should add to this beauty by preserving nature's handiwork in the Mill Creek Valley."

"It is our aim to enlist the enthusiasm of the entire Main Line in the movement to preserve the Mill Creek Valley so that it may be a permanent pleasure ground not only for the benefit of those who help on the Main Line but for the thousands of others who are merely visitors. We aim to make the Mill Creek Valley a second Wissahickon."

Another point in favor of the project is the fact that the gift or sale of tracts for park uses will be returned to the givers many times as a result of the increase in value of the rest of their properties."

Mill Creek runs generally in a south to north direction to the west of Ardmore, flowing into the Schuylkill. High hills thickly covered with old shade skirt the creek for almost its entire length, and the thick tree growth, combined with the twistings and turnings of the little stream, present an almost endless variety of natural beauties.

At the Theater

Monday is the opening date for the much-heralded production, "The Jazz Singer," starring Al Jolson, and including in the cast dainty May McAvoy, which will hold the boards at the Narberth Theater for the entire week of April 9.

When "The Jazz Singer" was being filmed, certain of the spectacular features included a picture of both the interior and exterior of the Winter Garden, where Mr. Jolson had achieved his great successes in musical comedy. It became necessary to obtain cordons of police to keep the great crowds in order that had assembled.

At another time when Orchard street, located in the very heart of the New York Ghetto, was being photographed, the director of "The Jazz Singer," Alan Crosland, with the camera men, was concealed within a canvas-topped truck. Holes were cut in the side and end of the canvas through which the scenes in this famous locality were photographed. If the people who surged in solid masses had known they were being "snapped" a riot would have been the result.

A period of four months was required for the actual making of "The Jazz Singer." May McAvoy, dainty and winsome star of the screen, was the unanimous choice for the part of Mary Dale, the tiny toe-dancer in the play, whose love and devotion were instrumental in helping Jack Robin, the jazz singer—played by Al Jolson—to achieve his success and bring happiness to both of them.

The Prince of Wales has just been down again. Niagara Falls will have to look to its laurels.

Senator Robinson, of Indiana, appears to have just about as much standing in the Senate as the bride's mother at a companionate marriage.

Cleanliness and Care Have Produced Results

TODAY the mortality rate in the territory we serve is much lower than before modern methods of milk production were introduced. Where epidemics formerly appeared from time to time, these sections now have become comparatively immune.

The highest standards of quality and cleanliness exist in selecting and supervising our country supply sources . . . The same care follows every step of production from the farm to your home. At various dairy products shows, farmers whose milk output is bought by Supplee-Wills-Jones invariably are awarded the majority of prizes offered. A recent case was the show at West Chester, in which 8 prizes were taken by dairies whose output is purchased by this company. These include the silver cup for high score. Our milk has been awarded 32 Gold Medals in 18 years and a total of close to 400 prizes, including medals, cups, ribbons, banners, etc. . . . This record is unapproached by any other milk anywhere.

BORO NINE QUILTS BASEBALL LEAGUE

Narberth Eliminated as Six Teams Plan Season's Schedule.

OAKMONT TO REPLACE

Narberth's baseball club decided to withdraw from the Main Line League this season at a meeting held last Monday night. On the same evening the league announced its semi-official lineup at a meeting in the Counties Motor Company offices, Ardmore—and Narberth's name was among the missing.

Aware of Narberth's intention the Main Line League tentatively decided at its meeting the same night to admit in its place the Oakmont team, which last year was a member of the Delaware County League. Unless other changes are made this year's members will be Gladwyne, P.oli, Berwyn, Wayne, Garrett Hill and Oakmont.

Charles Barker's Gladwyne team has also been considered as an applicant for membership in the league, but illness of its organizer, who is in the Bryn Mawr Hospital, has prevented further consideration of its plans.

To Gladwyne goes the credit for organizing the first junior ball team of the new Main Line League. With Walter Lowmes, Jr., as coach and adviser, it will enter the field against nine composed of proteges of other league teams who are too young to play in regular games.

It is proposed that each club foster a junior team, providing coaching, furnishing umpires and helping in general to develop new baseball talent. The schedule of the junior league would provide for a home and away game between the clubs, with the juniors playing at home while the senior team is playing away and vice versa.

Winners of Main Line contests may be entered in the nation-wide competition sponsored by the American and National Leagues, who have raised a $50,000 fund to defray transportation expenses for teams consisting of boys between 14 and 17 years of age to compete in sectional and national games.

RECOMMENDS MILK TESTING ORDINANCE

Would Require All Dairies to Make Tuberculin Test.

HEULINGS OUT AND IN

Adoption of a township ordinance requiring the tuberculin testing of all milk consumed in Lower Merion was advocated by Dr. George W. Grim, Milk Control Officer, at the April meeting of the Health Board held in the township building at Ardmore Tuesday night.

"At present 80 per cent. of the milk sold here is already given the tuberculin test voluntarily by dairies," Dr. Grim stated, "but we need an ordinance to require a test for the rest of the milk." The matter was referred to the board's legal committee for consideration.

Samuel M. Heulings, deputy milk control officer for Lower Merion, handed in his resignation, stating that the action was taken because other activities prevent his giving full time to township work. He had been elected again this year by the board to serve until 1929, and has been active in health board work for years.

In order to retain his services the position was changed from an elective one to an appointive one, and Mr. Heulings was appointed consultant to Milk Control Officer George Webster Grim by Dr. Bertrand Kingsbury Wilbur, who presided. The change will enable the board to make use of Mr. Heulings' services without too great a tax on his time.

Preparations for the spring fly campaign were made, and the State health offices were requested to send posters to be used for the annual township clean-up propaganda.

Routine reports were made by the health officer and plumbing inspector, and Officer Marvin E. Reynolds reported that he had taken Miss Blanche Meeser on an inspection trip through her Bala-Cynwyd and West Manayunk district Sunday. They were accompanied by Charles Wilson, of the Main Line Community Health and Civic Association.

Ice and ice cream dealers were sent notices to renew their licenses before April 1, and Secretary G. C. Anderson reported all but 17 of those licensed in 1927 have applied for their 1928 permits.

"TO THE UTTERMOST"

Sermon delivered by pastor of Methodist Church on April 1.

Text, Heb. 7:25—"Wherefore He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him, seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them."

The writer of the Epistle to the Hebrews tries to show that Israel's altar with its victims is overshadowed by Calvary and its Cross. That Holy victim was both priest and sacrifice and experienced resurrection. Having made atonement for sin in His triumph over death and the grave He lives forever a priest after the order of Melchisedec. The superiority of His priesthood rests in the fact that "He was made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life." For sins not His own He died on Calvary's Hill and the sacrifice He offered there embraces not one but all the nations. What happened when Jesus entered Hades? The mystery of those three days may never be disclosed to mortal eye, but that victory has inspired the Christian Church and sent her upon her glorious mission singing:

"He lives, He lives who once was dead; He lives, my everlasting Head!"

"Wherefore He is able to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him, seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them."

"The uttermost." What a word is this! What is the uttermost? There is such a thing as the uttermost in time. I turn my face toward the past and look down the yesterday. In thought I hasten through the millenniums and reach that day when "the morning stars sang together." On that day darkness gave place to light and time had its birth. Then we have the uttermost in time as to its beginning. From retrospect I turn to prospect and project my thought into the far future to that final and dreadful day when "the stars from heaven shall fall." There we have the uttermost in time as to its ending. There is such a thing as the uttermost in space. By means of a powerful telescope I look upon the most distant star that has come within our ken. When I have seen it I know that beyond our farthest vision are millions of other stars. Amazed by the stupendous reach of the universe I begin to realize to some extent the utter-most in space. "Able to save to the uttermost!" Those hands outstretched on Calvary touch the utmost in time and space. Patriarch, Psalmist, Prophet, Apostle, Martyr, behold your King! "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem; behold thy King cometh unto thee; He is just, and having salvation."

As in the realm of time and space so in the whole matter of sin and salvation there is such a thing as the uttermost. Who is the uttermost sinner? Has he lived in some past age, or is he somewhere on the face of the earth today? Shall we penetrate the realms of the lost in order to find him, or shall we seek him among the redeemed before the throne? If he is in the lowest Hell he knows today that Jesus could have saved him. If he is in highest Heaven his song is the most melodious. For the redeemed of the Lord sing more sweetly than the angels. They who have experienced a great salvation become possessed of a superabounding joy.

But it may be that that uttermost sinner is neither in Hell nor in Heaven, but in the borough of Narberth, sitting in one of its churches listening to one of its preachers and saying with the Apostle Paul, "Of whom I am chief." For where the Gospel light is brightest sin is most abhorred. They who come nearest the light see all their beauty turned into corruption. Such, however, lay tenacious hold upon the great assurance "He is able to save to the uttermost."

A traveler in the Holy Land seated himself on a hillside overlooking a Syrian valley. For some time he was lost in meditation. His thoughts were interrupted by a beating of sheen. Turning his eyes in the direction of the sound he saw a shepherd rounding the hillside, followed by his flock. The shepherd seemed unaware of the presence of a stranger and directed his footsteps toward a gently flowing stream which meandered through the valley. His eyes were fastened on the reeds that grew by the water's edge. A tall reed that had been broken attracted his attention. Stooping down and taking hold of it he pulled it up and carefully examined it. Dissatisfied with what he found he crushed it impatiently in his hands and cast it upon the gently-flowing waters. Proceeding a little farther he paused by a perfect reed. This he cut and scrutinized earnestly. Then taking his knife he began to whittle it. Soon he raised it to his lips and the whole valley was filled with music.

The traveler arose and greeted the shepherd. They talked together for hours and as evening shadows fell wended their way to the shepherd's hut. After folding the sheep the shepherd welcomed his guest to his home. Reaching to a shelf he took down a curious lamp with a wick in its spout and having lighted it went out to get some fuel. When he returned he found the lamp smoking horribly and the room filled with its reeking odor. Seizing the offending lamp he quenched it and flung it disdainfully back upon the shelf. Taking down another lamp he lighted it and soon its clear, steady flame flooded the room with light. That night the traveler meditated upon the broken reed by the Syrian waters and the smoking lamp in the shepherd's hut, and in thought he was back in old Jerusalem. He heard the voice of the prophet proclaiming: "He is coming! The King is coming! Messiah is coming! He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause His voice to be heard in the street. A bruised reed shall He not break, and smoking flax shall He not quench." Why not? Why, because His specialty was "bruised reeds" and "smoking lamps." "I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance." Herein is He superior to His fellows. The Syrian shepherd could make an instrument of music from a perfect reed only, but it is the glory of the Good Shepherd that His greatest conquests are among the discarded wreckage of human life. He finds a Magdalene and lo! her life is transformed and her cleansed and grateful heart sends her to break upon His feet a box of precious ointment which fragrance still sweetens life. He reaches down into a degraded heart and lo! John Newton takes up his song of

Rev. Cletus A. Senft, Pastor

The Rev. Russell B. Brady, pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, Cincinnati, says, among other things, that the Protestant Church has lost its authority because it fails to observe the Lord's Supper. In some churches no Holy Communion service is held from year to year, notwithstanding that this sacrament is the very foundation of the Church's strength. "... it has now developed into a mere counter or cafeteria service instead of the religious ceremony of having the minister make use of the silver cup prescribed by Church authorities."

An Easter Message from

Phillips Brooks:

"The great Easter truth is not that we are to live newly after death—but that is not the great thing; but that we are to live now here and now, by the power of the Resurrection; not so much that we are to live forever, as that we are to live nobly now because we are to live forever."

This Church is planning for a wonderful Easter Day beginning with the Sunrise Service at 7 o'clock and ending with the evening Choral Service by the three choruses. A most cordial invitation is extended to all the meetings.

AZALEAS FOR EASTER—Many Main Line gardeners who visited the Philadelphia Flower Festival in March saw and admired the beautiful exhibit of azaleas and hybrid rhododendrons. Among the more beautiful of the azaleas were the Kurume or Japanese azaleas, which are not only beautiful in colors of white, pale pink, deep pink, salmon pink, orange, bright red and even lavender, but are hardy and can be planted out in the garden after flowering indoors.

Others in the same class are the popular varieties—Hinodogiri and Hinomayo, the first a bright rosy-crimson and the latter a clear pink. Also in the same group can be included the variety amoena which bears quantities of bloom of a rosy purple, or rosy magenta color—a color that clashes with everything but itself.

Florists have these plants forced to bloom at Easter time and they make the most acceptable and most practical gift because the bloom will last for at least 10 days and then the plant can be removed from the pot and placed outdoors to bloom next year and forever after if placed in soil that has been made acid by a generous application of leaf soil, peat moss or humus—and, of course, in a half-shaded location. Among rhododendrons or laurels the azaleas are at home as are all azaleas, which by the way are of the same plant family as the rhododendrons.

Azalea Indica is quite a gorgeous fellow and is offered at Easter time, but this variety is not hardy and if planted outdoors during the summer must be brought indoors before frost and kept in the greenhouse or warm sun room.

If your beds and borders are all cleaned up and bone meal worked into the upper four inches of soil you can sow seed of alyssum for that white border. Seeds of ageratum for a blue border can be sown indoors to be set out later, the ageratum does not mind being moved while the alyssum rather objects. Time to sow cosmos seed indoors in pots to be planted out after April 25.

Leave the covering on the roses until after April 20. They are starting to bud, but must be held back until danger of frost is over.

GILFILLAN CAMP

Swimming Club

Spring Lake

Paoli, Pa.

The primary object in joining a club of this kind is that one may go there for a couple of hours in the evening for some real exercise and relaxation or enjoy a whole day in the great outdoors.

Spring Lake, because of its accessibility to the Main Line and its natural beauty, makes it irresistible. The location, combining the attractions of woods and fields, provides ideal picnic spots. The lake affords quiet, shallow water for canoeing. There is a beach for timid swimmers and beginners, and for the more advanced swimmers and divers every facility for water sports, tennis, basketball and other sports is offered. The year-round membership includes ice-skating privileges.

There is health in the great outdoors—health in its fullest sense—physical, mental, spiritual. Our late President Roosevelt said: "To be fit mentally, one must be fit physically." This exclusive little place will serve the latter purpose.

Adults, $10.00; six to sixteen years, $5.00. Children under twelve years of age must be attended by adults. Guest, accompanied by member, 50 cents. Special rates for families. Swimming instructions, six lessons for $5.00.

JEDDO-HIGHLAND COAL

1858 was the year in which the first ton of Jeddo-Highland Coal was mined. At that time, this coal was justly considered the highest quality anthracite on account of its high heat-giving value, low ash content and careful preparation.

TODAY seventy years later, Jeddo-Highland Coal is being mined from the same seams in the same compact property—the original high quality is unchanged—and the most exacting standard of preparation is strictly adhered to.

Bear this in mind when filling your bins this Spring.

CHESTER NINE IS FIRST L. M. VICTIM

Maroon and White Shows Class in Opening Ball Game of Season.

WIN IN NINTH INNING

Tuesday afternoon saw Lower Merion High winning its first baseball game of the season, a thrilling ninth inning victory on the home field in Ardmore over the Chester High School nine, 7-6. Trailing till the eighth inning, Lower Merion put on a rally, when MacNeal, the visiting hurler weakened and allowed three runs to trickle across the platter. These tied the game at six all, and set the stage for the winning tally in the ninth.

Wynne relieved MacNeal after the latter's disastrous eighth inning, and entered the game in time to be charged with the defeat, as it was against his pitching that the winning run was scored.

At the start of this inning, Wynne got in a hole by giving Lockwood a free ticket to first. Lower Merion's pitcher, bunted; and both runners were safe when the opposing hurler stumbled while fielding the ball. Then Lockwood and Lyons worked the double steal, putting Lockwood on third and Lyons on second. With this setting, Wynne uncorked his wild heave and Lockwood drifted across the plate with the winning marker.

The game was the first of the season for each team, and the brand of ball exhibited was of first-class order with Lower Merion showing a trifle better in the field.

Richardson, Haskell, and Captain "Mike" Mulligan shared the hitting honors, with Mulligan getting three safeties. Haskell's single in the third frame pushed over Lower's first two runs while Richardson's hit in the eighth scored the tying runs. For Chester the work of Casto and Mitchell stood out. MacNeal pitched a fine game up to the eighth, when he weakened, while Mitchell's home run was the batting feature of the game.

Next Tuesday, Lower Merion plays the West Catholic High School team on the home grounds and a good game should be the result of the meeting of these two nines. Coach Cocklin has a fine group of boys, but most of them lack seasoning. With two or three more weeks of practice Mr. Cocklin will impart some of his knowledge to these boys who should give a good account of themselves in the future games.

Sues Singer Company

Minerva Justice, of Narberth, through Attorney Thomas O. Haydock, has filed suit at Norristown against the Singer Sewing Machine Company, to recover $25,000, representing damages because of injuries said to have been sustained by Mrs. Justice when she fell into a cellarway in front of the company's premises at Ardmore August 3, 1927.

Another suit filed was by Attorney William H. Landis in behalf of Herman Grossman against Vincent and Frank Reginaldi to recover $840 alleged to be due under a lease as rental for a store at 31 East Spring avenue, Ardmore.

Thouren Estate $30,000

Nicholas Thouren, late of Merion, leaves the residue of his $23,000 estate to the Pennsylvania Company for Insurance on Lives and the granting of annuities, in trust, for the benefit of his wife, Anna D. Thouren, in a will probated at Norristown Monday, and directs at her death the trust shall continue for the benefit of his daughter, Margaret T. Gordon, and at her death the principal is to go to her children. The wife and daughter are named executrices of the will, written July 7, 1921.

In a codicil, written July 16, 1927, the testator makes public bequests of $1000 each to St. Vincent's Aid Society, House of Good Shepherd, Little Sister of Poor, Seminary of St. Charles Borromeo, St. Margaret's Church of Narberth, St. Mary's Institute for Blind, at Lansdale; Convent of Sacred Heart, at Haverford; Sisters of Mercy, at Merion; St. Joseph's Church in Philadelphia; Bryn Mawr Hospital, Misericordia Hospital, American Society for Visiting Catholic Prisoners, Sisters of Holy Child for Rosemont College, St. Agnes' Catholic Church, at Manderson, North Dakota.

Other public bequests of $500 each are to St. John's Orphan Asylum, St. John's Home for Catholic Boys, Catholic Protectors for Boys, at Fatland, and Orpheus Glee Club, Philadelphia.

BUY WATER COMPANY

John Fearnside, owner of the West Conshohocken Water Company for the last four years, has sold his interests to the American Pipe and Construction Company, subsidiary of the Philadelphia Suburban Water Company. This will be operated as a part of the Bryn Mawr division of the Philadelphia Suburban Water Company.

The roof of the convention hall at Houston has been built separately. Conventions have a way of taking the roof off, so probably this is a move in the direction of conservation.

Congress cannot be expected to do much in a presidential year, other than to make political speeches and gestures with a view of catching the attention of newspaper readers.

"ANY TWINS IN?"

Library's Supply of Popular Children's Books Renewed.

"Are any of the twins in?" is a question frequently asked these days in the children's department of the library. And the usual answer is a doubtful glance at the shelves where they are supposed to be, for they are generally "out."

These "Twins," as they are economically called, are books by Lucy Fitch Perkins, delightfully written in description of the lives of a boy and a girl, the twins, in various countries. They give an accurate and entertaining impression of the lives of children in other lands, and serve a worthy purpose in helping children of one country to understand those of another.

The library has recently renewed its supply of the books in this series and has thus reawakened interest in them. The list follows:

American Twins of 1812, Belgian Twins, Cave Twins, Colonial Twins of Virginia, Dutch Twins, Eskimo Twins, Filipino Twins, French, Irish, Italian, Japanese, Mexican, Pioneer, Puritan, Scotch and Swiss.

"TO THE UTMOST"

"Amazing grace." Into the gutter He reaches those pierced hands, lays hold upon a poor drunkard and sends the regenerated John B. Gough to proclaim the vengeance of temperance. To the utmost! "He is able to save to the utmost all who come unto God by Him."

And the secret of His power! This is the secret—"Seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them." My head is bowed in grief, my spirit overwhelmed within me, my eyes a fountain of tears. Was there ever sorrow like unto my sorrow? In that moment of misgiving I feel a hand laid upon my shoulder and the familiar voice of a friend says, "I am praying for you." What an uplift to feel that our friends and neighbors are praying for us in these hours when our sky is overcast! How helpful the prayers of our brother man! But I can tell of something infinitely more glorious. The message of the Book is, that my prayer, and the prayers of my friends on my behalf are supplemented by the continual high-priestly prayer of Jesus Himself. He intercedes for me! Nothing can surpass that.

Not only do His words plead my cause, but His scars eloquently and availingly intercede for me. There is an old hymn we sometimes sing. It finds disfavor in some quarters.

"Five bleeding wounds He bears,
Received on Calvary;
They pour effectual prayers,
They strongly plead for me;
'Forgive Him, O forgive,' they cry,
'Nor let that ransomed sinner die!'"

"What! Those wounds still bleeding!" they exclaim. "Unthinkable!" Yes, impossible, unthinkable if you have no noctry in your soul, no imagination in your heart and are lacking in spiritual discernment.

A little girl approached an open fire with the result that soon her dress was in flames. In response to her cry her mother came and with bare hands rescued her child from a terrible death. Her hands, however, were so severely burned that the skill of the physician could not prevent some dreadful scars. Those hands were so repulsive to her child that she would weep every time she saw them and cry out in fright—"O, Mother, what horrible hands!" In order to relieve the distress of her child she covered her hands with gloves. The years passed and soon the growing child began to reason about those gloved hands. One day she asked, "Mother, why do you always wear gloves?" The time had come to answer that question, so drawing her little girl to her side she told the story of how her hands became scarred. When she finished the story her daughter said, "Mother, remove the gloves." Slowly she uncovered her hands and her little girl regarded them earnestly for a while. Then raising her mother's hand in her own she raised them to her lips and showered them with kisses, exclaiming as she did so, "O, mother, what beautiful hands! O, mother, what beautiful hands!"

Well-nigh 2000 years have elapsed since Calvary's cruel experience. To us it is a thing of the yesterdays. Not so to God. To Him it is a thing of the living present. For He who died upon yonder Cross was His only-begotten Son, His well-beloved. The eternal Father, reminded of our need of redemption, cannot forget at what a price it was procured, and in His sight the wounds still bleed, though long since healed and transfigured. And the result!

"The Father hears Him pray,
His dear anointed One;
He cannot turn away
The presence of His Son;
His spirit answers to the blood,
And tells me I am born of God."

School Notes

Pupils and teachers are enjoying the Easter vacation from Thursday to Monday, inclusive.

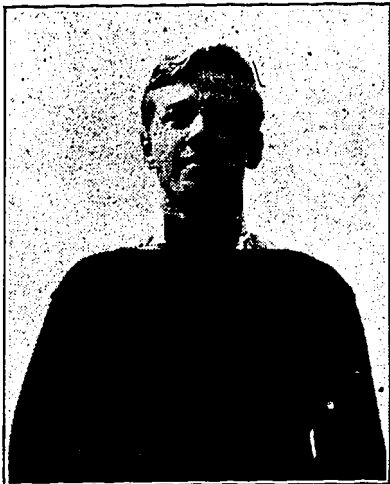

The sixth grades had their annual hand-ball contest on Tuesday. Sixth A won by the following scores: 10-15, 15-11, 15-5.

The Archery Club meets on Mondays after school. Alexander Loos is the high scorer up to date.

Beginning Thursday, April 12, the various clubs will meet at 2.40. In addition to the Archery Club, the most popular clubs are the Athletics, Art, Dramatic and Science.

Members of Congress who have flown with Lindbergh may feel less impressed, hereafter, with their own aviation stunts in the Congressional chambers.

He's the Editor

Robert Kessler, of Bala, editor of the year book of the graduating class at Lower Merion High, which is now in the throes of "going to press." Prominent in debate activities at the Ardmore Senior High, he is school orator and captain of this year's debating team. He also has earned his letters in track and in soccer.

HART ADDRESSES CLUB

Christians somehow miss the mysticism, quietude, solitude and attitude of devout prayer so noticeable in the Oriental beliefs. Dr. Hart doubts if many Christians today know the true meaning of religious. One never outgrows religion, one can never go beyond it. A life time is too short to learn and to know all about it.

As if one such meaningful message were not enough, Miss F. L. T. Seabury, of Philadelphia, teacher of the "Melody Way" of piano instruction, demonstrated her methods with the help of the following six little girls who had had just 12 lessons: Ruth Brooks, Evelyn Brooks, Hettie Ehmann, Elsie Ehmann, Kathryn Shaw, Alison Shaw, all of Philadelphia. Dr. Elliott's statement that "of all studies for training the mind, piano work excels," was well exemplified in the accuracy and skill these little girls showed. They were taught the five essentials of a musical composition, rhythm, melody, harmony, form and mood. Technique and expression were carefully explained and such essentials as definition of terms, study of signatures, notation and formation of chords were presented in such attractive composition as the "Slumber Song," "My Pony," "Evening Song," "Magic Music," "The Bells" and "Little Wooden Shoes." The children separately or in groups played original compositions as well as those mentioned above.

After the announcements by the president of the Institute of Politics, April 10, at Bryn Mawr, and of talks by Miss De Both on cooking and home-making, April 16, 17 and 18 at the Academy of Music, Mrs. Sherron and her aides served fruit punch and home-made cakes.

Club calendar:
April 10, 10 A. M.—Meeting of Executive Board with Mrs. C. A. Farmer, 414 Woodbine avenue.

April 10, 2 P. M.—Home Economics Class, motion pictures of dairy industry. Suggestions on how to serve refreshments for bridge and other parties, by Ellen S. Brinton, at the home of Mrs. E. Mueller, 208 Essex avenue.

1 Minute for the Children

A Service for their future they will appreciate.

Look at your life insurance policies. If they read "Payable to —, my wife, if she survives me; otherwise to my exec., admin., and assigns," you are not giving the service to your children that you think you are. The law, and not you, will dictate what they shall receive, and at considerable cost and delay.

I should enjoy the privilege of explaining in detail how you can correct this condition without any cost.
